Carol, I had meant to pass along a complimentary note relative to policing of New Year's Eve n Surrey. In their Duty Officer report, they noted that GVTAPS had 18 people on duty that night, with half of them working the key areas of responsibility in Surrey.

Surrey Detachment, who themselves had 130 people scheduled to work, were very complimentary to the GVTAPS force on having the foresight to have the right amount of people working where they were needed to ensure a safe and secure evening/night for all.

Nicely done.
